

The Church, is God's primary institution for social and cultural transformation. The purpose of this curriculum is to empower the community to effectively engage the youth with the aim of building their potential for holistic engagements in the family, community and the nation as a whole.